SPIRITUAL LOURDES

HISTORY OF LOURDES AND OF THE APPARITIONS

SOME HISTORY

Lourdes is located in the South-West of the "Hautes-Pyrénées département". It is a significant place, where landscape and history mix together. The silhouette of the Pyrenean chain is visible to the South with the Béout and Grand Jer summits close by. The "Gave de Pau" river which originates from Gavarnie, crosses the urban area of Lourdes and passes next to the Grotto of Massabielle before heading towards the Béarn region.

The Espéugues hollow provides evidence of the first inhabitants of the Bigorre region, as shown by the little ivory "horse" and the other tools and bones that were found there. The Gauls, the Romans, the Barbarians and the Moors successively fortified the rock on which the fortified castle and its keep are erected.

In the 17th century, the incorporation of the Bigorre region into France (1607) reduced the importance of the citadel. It became a state prison and was kept by a small garrison.

At the dawn of the Apparitions, Lourdes was a humble country town with a population of 4,035 people. This small but pleasant town was a stopping-off point for people taking the waters at a spa, such as Barèges, Cauterets, or Luz-Saint-Sauveur, as well as for the first hikers going to Gavarnie.

Before 1858 people passed through the town of Lourdes which was not of particular interest for travellers. After that date, it became a local pilgrimage centre, then a national and an international one.

WHAT HAPPENED IN LOURDES IN 1858

In the 19th century, Lourdes was one of the main places in the district with 4,035 inhabitants and situated on the banks of the "Gave de Pau" river. Mills were plentiful; in one of those, the Boly Mill, François and Louise Soubirous lived happily for 10 years together with their 4 children. The eldest was christened Marie-Bernarde but called Bernadette (born on January 7th 1844).

In 1854, the Soubirous family was reduced to extreme poverty: as a result of an accident at work, François lost an eye, he was falsely accused of having stolen two sacks of flour and he was sent to prison. The mill went bankrupt.

Bernadette had cholera and tuberculosis. She suffered the consequences throughout her life. The family had to leave the mill and in 1856 had taken refuge in a disused prison cell of 16m² called the "Cachot".

At 14, unable to read or write, not having made her First Communion, Bernadette was to have an extraordinary experience. On February 11th 1858, Bernadette, her sister Toinette and a friend, Jeanne Abadie, went looking for firewood in the grotto called Massabielle, beside the "Gave de Pau" river. While Toinette and Jeanne gathered wood, Bernadette heard a sound like a gust of wind.

That was the first apparition, 17 others were to follow. On July 4th 1866, Bernadette left Lourdes for Nevers where she entered, as a nun, the Convent of Saint Gildard. She died there on April 6th 1879, where her body still lies.

The legend of Lourdes:

In 778, Charlemagne came down from the Pyrenees as a victor. In Lourdes for long months, he fought the Saracen Mirat, who was occupying the castle. Just as famine and disease were rife, Mirat saw an eagle coming out of the blue sky which flew over the castle and let the huge trout he held in its beak drop at his feet. The Moorish chief took the fish and threw it over the ramparts. Thinking that the Moors still had food, Charlemagne immediately raised the siege. Converted to Christianity, Mirat took the name of "Lorus", which gave Lourdes its name.

BERNADETTE'S FOOTSTEPS DISCOVERY ROUTE

Step into Bernadette's history

LOURDES was just a small village of 4,000 inhabitants pressed against the foothills of the Pyrenees and nestled at the foot of its castle, when the Virgin Mary appeared to Bernadette Soubirous on February 11, 1858.

Today, we invite you to wander through the streets of Lourdes and discover the places that influenced Bernadette's life.

Following in her footsteps at your own pace, you will get a better understanding of her history and that of the Marian city, from the 19th Century to the present day.

From the Boly Mill where she was born, to the Grotto where the Apparitions took place in the heart of the Sanctuary, Lourdes still resounds with the delicate footsteps of Bernadette Soubirous.

A beautiful, fascinating stroll for all ages.

BARTRÈS

Bartrès is one of the sites that is most evocative of Bernadette and her era. The village lies on high land just North of Lourdes. When she was ten months old, this is where Bernadette was fostered by Marie Lagües for eighteen months. She returned there for a while during the summer of 1857, just before the Apparitions (in February 1858). Nowadays, a footpath offers a peaceful walk to Bartrès, away from the road (information at the tourist office).

→ THE CITY HALL

CULTURAL HERITAGE

THE CITY HALL

2, rue de l'Hôtel de Ville

The current city hall is composed of three bourgeois houses from the early 20th century. In 1942, the City of Lourdes bought the «Villa Roques» to Mrs Roques, the «Villa Gazagne» to Mr Gazagne in 1989, and in 1994, the «Villa Rachel» to Mr Picot.

Don't miss the white garden, a fine example of the skill of the municipal gardeners, which has earned Lourdes '3 Fleurs' Floral Town status.

THE MARKET PLACE

Place du Champ Commun

Inspired by Victor Baltard, the Market Place was inaugurated in 1900 and comes from the so-called «Marché de la Pierre» in Toulouse. It is the perfect illustration of an end 19th century's cast-iron architecture. Recently renovated, it now also shelters the «Médiathèque».

THE SOUM CASTLE

Rue Edmond Michelet

Originally named «Villa Fournau» and then renamed «Soum Castle», this castle was built by the Lourdes-born architect Jean-Marie Lacrampe for the Fournau family (a former hotel-owning family) in the early 1900. It was then bought by Mrs Suberville who then sold it to the City of Lourdes following the Second World War.

THE GARNAVIE TOWER

Rue du Garnavie

The «Guigne Tower», also known as the «Garnavie Tower», is the last remaining piece of the towers and city gates, which went up to a dozen in the 17th century. This tower was built in the 13th century. It is the perfect example of this era's Pyrenean military buildings, and reminds us, thanks to its ancient architecture, of the numerous regional signal towers. This monument is registered to the Further Inventory of Historical Monuments since 1946.

THE FOUNTAINS

Lourdes still owns numerous remains of its past. The fountains are the perfect example of the built heritage of our city. The oldest of them all is undoubtedly the three-hole fountain, authenticated by the city archives since the Middle-Age. This fountain, which is located rue de la Fontaine, was supplied in water by a spring situated underneath the medieval castle.

Later, in the 19th century, other fountains were built in the city centre. Anselme Lacadé, who was the Mayor when the Apparitions occurred, had some built: The Marcadal fountain (Place du Marcadal), the Porche fountain (Avenue du Général Baron Maransin, on the left before the railway bridge). Along the streets, numerous other fountains can be seen, of which the Market's fountain (Place du Champ Commun), the Garnavie fountain (Rue du Garnavie), the Espenettes fountain (Rue des Espenettes) and the little Place Peyramale fountain.

THE PARISH CHURCH OF THE SACRED HEART

The current parish church was built between 1875 and 1903 to replace the Church of St Peter that was on the market square (now Place Peyramale), it was the church that Bernadette Soubirous attended, it was destroyed by a fire in 1904.

The church contains items of interest connected with Bernadette Soubirous: the baptismal font where she was baptised on January 9th 1844 and the tomb of Abbot Peyramale, the parish priest at the time of the Apparitions.

THE UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

8, rue de l'Ukraine
Tél 09 80 83 37 80
lourdes@ugcc.fr

The Ukrainian Catholic Church was consecrated in 1982. Built in a Neo-Byzantine style by the Ukrainian architect Myroslav Nimciv, it is identified by its five golden domes. Open to everyone, this place of worship belongs to the Greek Catholic Church of Ukraine.

It is the only Eastern Catholic church in Lourdes. With its architecture and frescoes, the church offers a window on spirituality and the Christian East culture. The polychrome decorations covering its walls, created by the famous Polish-Ukrainian painter Yuriy (Jerzy) Nowosielski, are striking modern interpretation of the Byzantine tradition. The monumental figure of the Mother of God in prayer, along with more than 60 figures of saints and prophets, are deeply inspiring while also fostering contemplation and meditation.

Opening times:

NATURAL LOURDES

LOURDES

LOURDES LAKE AND PEAT BOG

Lourdes lake, unknown sight of the Marian city just a few minutes from the centre, is a glacial lake. This peaceful, idyllic setting offers a range of outdoor activities, including walking, mountain biking, fishing and golf. The peat bog lying west of the lake has been part of the Natura 2000 network since 2006. This hostile-looking site is home to an impressive and distinctive array of plant and animal life, including false ringlets, one of Europe's most threatened species of butterfly, and sundew, a small carnivorous plant very rare in France. During high season, the lake is a gathering place for kayak, pedal boat and stand-up paddle lovers. If you are a little less athletic, the lake is the perfect place to sunbathe or take a nap! You get all the benefits of the beach, with a view onto the mountains.

MAJOR SITES IN OCCITANIE

We have selected for you
the best of the Pyrenees.
For one day or a longer stay, these venues are worth seeing.

1 GAVARNIE THE NATURAL COLOSSEUM

«This is the most mysterious building of the most mysterious of all architects; this is a natural colosseum; this is Gavarnie», Victor Hugo said.

An impressive amphitheatre of a rare perfection: 5.5km diameter, 1,500m in height, topped with 17 peaks of 3000m altitude. Visit this monument, listed as UNESCO World Heritage, on the back of a donkey or a horse, or simply on foot...

Car park available in the town of Gavarnie, where the panorama on the Cirque is already spectacular. An easy 2 hours hike (back and forth) will allow you to reach the bottom of the Cirque.

2 CAUTERETS- PONT D'ESPAGNE THE PYRENEAN EDEN

Cauterets-Pont d'Espagne is a gorgeous garden looked down on by the Vignemale, the highest peak of the French Pyrenees.

Fill your lungs with fresh scented air and open your eyes to the wonders of nature. Spy on marmots, meet Pyrenean chamois, stay in awe in front of the turquoise waters of the Lac de Gaube...

Please note: No need to be an experienced hiker, the Puntas cable car and the Gaube chairlift can be used directly, then the lake is only a 15min walk away. The way back down can be achieved either by foot or using the chairlift.

This venue houses an observatory, a planetarium and an interpretation centre, but also offers a catering or snacking service for lunch every day.

New: Aerial passageway and Histopad

Access by cable car from La Mongie (4 km from the Col du Tourmalet).

You can explore 46 villages in a protected environment offering a wide range of activities all year round: winter sports, and from spring onwards, mountain biking, cycling, trail running, white water and outdoor sports, climbing and hiking.
